INTERLOCKED

The Class of '78 opened doors one brisk September morn, big wooden doors, to breathe the air of new books and waxed floors; they opened blue and yellow and olive green metal locker doors to catch the musty smell of a dormant summer.

And then, mingling with and overcoming the lingering smell of disuse, came the avalanche of fresh and varied tenants: books jammed with notes, crumpled tests and "lost" assignments, pink detention slips, old Rebellions we hated to throw away, gym suits pleading for soap, absence notes we really meant to turn in, rock–hard home–made lunches abandoned for those lively ant–motivated potato chips in the cafe.

Then came the final day when these old battered friends listened to quiet clicks of a grudging combination that opened for the final cleanup.

Lingering with that faint musty smell were fresh memories that settled in our minds and promised to stay long after the final "Slam" on 3 years of lockermania had echoed away.

ADMINISTRATION

Added to the usual headaches faced by every school administration the tripartite at Walpole High School had enough extras to give them perennial migrains.

School evalution absorbed the facultly and administration in hours of extra curricular activity; restless underclassmen began to worry over the closing of open campus; Mr. Graff and Mr. Snell watched the traffic pattern after many switches occured; The new fields were coming along but they all hoped they would survive the weather; at least the false alarms were at a minimum, but of course, there was the tightened control of the finances and the teachers complaints.

GUIDANCE

Added to it usual chores of programming students through high school and on to college was the highlight of the year, Higher Education Night, when Walpole hosted students and parents from 7 high schools in the surrounding area to meet with representatives from a hundred and seventy five colleges.

Over 1500 parents, students, and other interested guests mulled through pages of information concerning some of the colleges of their choice and had the opportunity of asking questions

Much less publicized than Higher Ed Night, but equally important, were the behind–the–scenes work of the counselor who made every effort to meet with each student at least twice a year to help choose the right courses and the right future that would match both the student's aptitude and interest.

ARTS

Artists at Walpole High School had another successful year in the Scholastic Art Awards, sponsored annually by the Boston Globe.

BUSINESS

For a variety of reasons students at WHS have shown a growing interest in courses that will enable them to get jobs while at school and continue in them following graduation.

In keeping with the growing demands Mr. Valaitis., head of the dept, is enlarging present programs and introducing new ones. All manual typewriters for instance, are being replaced by electric models. A transcription course, with enouah machines to accomodate an entire class, rather than the present few within a class, is the goal for 1980.

The junior highs, according to Mr. Valaitis, are feeding the high school with students of a high-level of competence. To meet their demands, programs are being planned for high levels of performance.

DECA

Distributive Education Clubs of America, D.E.C.A., a national organization whose purpose is to give business students an opportunity to grasp the concepts of the real business world has progressed much since 1974 when D.E.C.A. first started operating.

They have advanced in sales volume and record keeping to turn the Down Under into a profitable operation.

Mr. Conaty, who heads Walpole's D.E.C.A., has brought speakers and guests to talk to students about the aspects of business life.

The "Down Under", the school store, is now busy rearranging and getting ready for next year's move to the cafeteria.

ENGLISH

This year Walpole High had a new editor-in-chief to supervise the formation of the new chapter soon to become a part of English Department history. Mrs. Doris Grindle replaced previous editor Arthur Hull temporarily as head of the department.

The new addition will include stories such as Mr. Hull's leaving on sabbatical to study at B.U., Mr. Farrell's travelling to East Junior High High to help out, Miss Springer's poets sharing their feeling with their new friends at Charwell House, Mrs. Hinds spending much of the year in the hospital, and numerous field trips to see such sights as "Fantasia," "Macbeth," and the Boston Globe.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economic department of Walpole High has completed another full year of activities.

Along with the cooking and sewing, there was a child development class which worked with the elementary students of different schools.

The students, directed by Gloria White and Janet Eichner led the students into a fulfilling year with special speakers, movies, and interaction with the children.

Getting back to basics, learning how to meet needs and develop responsible relationships were stressed throughout most courses.

"Hmmmmmmmm....."

Mr. Casbara, head of the Industrial Arts Department, was pleased that classes went so well despite a decrease in enrollment. Budgeted funds enabled him to buy necessary tools and equipment that would enable students to do quality work.

Another plus for the department was the addition of the fairer sex invading a once jealously guarded male domain. Mr. Casbara felt that the female students '...added to the decor of the shops and did good quality work.'

Some of the major projects were the solar heat panels by Mr. Mailhots's Power Mechanics class, the rocking horses by Mr. Gable's woodworking class, and the printing of the Labyrinth by Mr. Newbauer's Graphic Arts Class.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Some highlights of the year:

- –Much inter–teaching of two languages.
- –Trip to Madrid in April with M. MacGregor (Spanish).
- –Trip to Rome, highlighted by a side trip to Florence and an audience with the Pope.
- –Several National Winners in the French, Spanish and Classical (Latin) examinations.
- –Culinary Arts classes with International foods from Spain, France and Italy.
- –Latin soiree highlighted by chariot race with students dressed in Togas.
- –Trips by Italian and Latin students to see the Pompeii exhibit at Museum of Fine Arts in Boston.

MATH

The Math Department carried out its usual affairs this year including Metric eek, the Airplane Race & Candy Guess.

Metric week included a poster contest and a guess—a metric—measure. The rplane race was held at Walpole High School in the old gym, and included a de—range of self—made paper airplanes. The candy guess was a jar of hristmas candy and everyone bought a guess for 10¢. The money went to Globe nta and of course the candy went to the winner.

The Math Club became more active this year. They had more meetings and more tivities, including the use of a biorythym computer.

Mrs. Forrester returned this year to the math department. The dept. started September with a new teacher Mrs. Leslie, who was replaced by Miss Martin, April. A few of the course names will be changed next year including Review Math" changed to "Math for College Boards," " Senior Math" will called "Advanced Math Topics" and "Consumer Math" will be an open llege prep course for all students.

MUSIC

The Walpole High School Music Department experienced a very full year during 77–78. Besides special combos and ensembles, there were basically four performing groups in the year's high school music system. These were the Chorus, the Concert Band, the Stage band, and the Dixieland Band.

Between the many performances, practicing and fund-raising, the musicians had to work very hard. Under the direction of Mr. Thomas Mills, band and chorus director and Music Dept. chairman, the year was a great success.

The highlight of the year had to be the band's concert tour of central and southern Vermont. The trip lasted from April 26 to April 29, when the Concert Band, Stage Band, and the Dixieland Band performed in Montpelier, Berlin, Waterbury, and Jacksonville, Vermont. To finance the tour, the band members raised funds through washing cars, selling jewelry and raffle tickets, and through running a refreshment booth at the Schaefer Stadium.

First flutes and piccolo at the top of the band

The department held its regularly scheduled concerts throughout the year; the Winter Concert on December 22, the Early Spring Concert on March 10, The Spring Thing Dance on April 8, and the Pops Nite VII on May 20. In addition to these concerts, the smaller groups performed at various halls and schools. The Stage Band played a couple of dances this year and competed in jazz ensemble competions, earning a second-place trophy in the Norwood Jazz Classic.

The Marching Band also had a good marching season earning a fifth-place in the Quincy Competition Parade, placing above every other band in the Bay State League.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

It was a relatively active year for the dept. through fall and winter with everything from dancing to fencing, but then the lingering snows from the Blizzard of '78 kept spring sports confined to parking lots and much coveted gym space.

The long-awaited fields, still unfinished, would hopefully be finished in the fall of '78.

SCIENCE

The Science Dept. offered many 'hands–on' activities during the year with biology students dissecting fetal pigs and sheeps' hearts. Students also studied river life as they collected samples and analyzed them.

"Problems in Biology" classes performed experiments on liver diseases of mice, intelligence of rats, behavior patterns of chameleons and plant–life development.

Oceanography classes visited the aquarium in Boston and scoured Moon Island to find various samples of aquatic life to add to the class's growing collection.

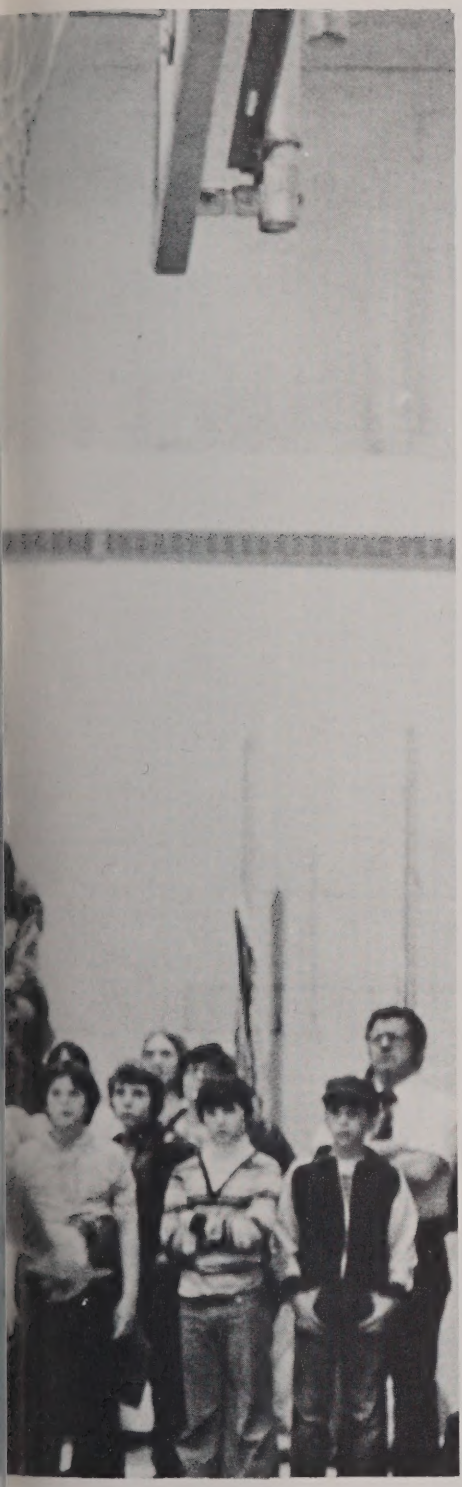
SOCIAL STUDIES



The Social Studies Department had another far–ranging year, from class trips to sponsoring a basketball game.

The International Relation's class, a group of advanced placed seniors, ran the basketball game of April 6 between the high school's teachers and seven of the New England Patriots.

The Department will offer an advanced placement course in 1978– 79 to sophomores. The class will deal with United States history.

Bruce Hanesworth, special assistant to the chairman of the Foxboro Company, talked to classes about Soviet technology, and its relationship with U.S. technology.

SPECIAL SERVICES

The Special Needs Program has been in existence for over 16 years, but has grown more extensive in the last 2 years at the Walpole High School. The program is headed by Mr. James Lind. Special Needs is designed to help the student that has a more difficult time making it through school than most of the other students. Tutoring, individualized counseling and smaller class sizes are alternatives for these students.

One out of every ten students is somewhat involved in the Special Needs Programs. The Special Needs teachers here are, Mr. Larry Korff, Mrs. Marilyn Stone, Mrs. Eileen Cunningham, Mr. Richard DeCarneys, and Mr. James Lind. These teachers aid other teachers in helping a Special Needs Student in a regular classroom situation. Miss Michele Beaubien, a supportive tutor, also helps the student in any extra help they may need to succeed in a course.

Since the advancement of the Special Needs Program, students will now receive more intensified help in the junior highs, and grammer schools, so it will make it easier for them in their high school years.

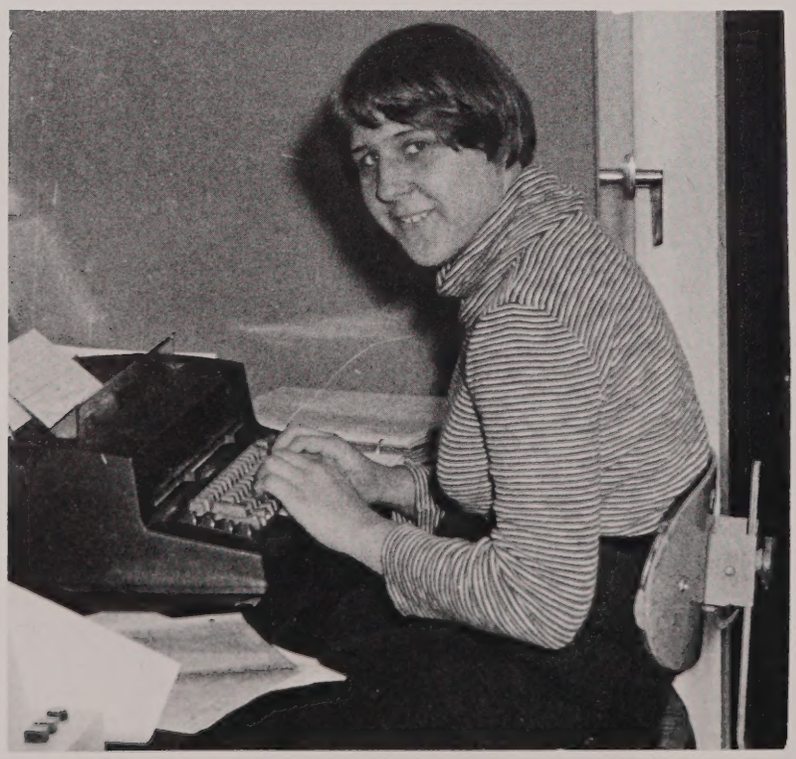
WORK EXPERIENCE & WORK STUDY

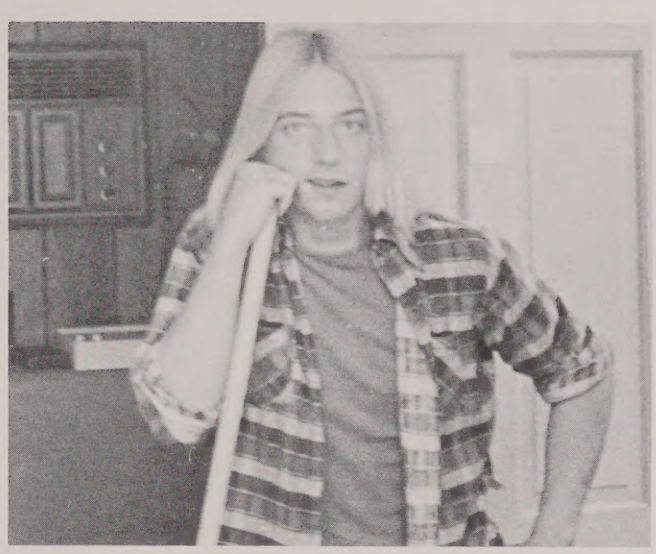
Work Study

The Work Study Program at WHS is a singular opportunity for many students to earn five class credits while learning the skills of a particular job. This past year 51 students were enrolled in this program.

Mr. Peter Turco, supervisor of the Work Study Program, has outlined the requirements involved in participating in this program:

(1) The student finds his own job.
(2) Both juniors and seniors are eligible.
(3) Job hours must begin between 12:00 and 3:00p.m.
(4) Student must put in at least a 20–hour week.
(5) Student must carry 22 class hours.
(6) Five absences during a semester drops the student from the program.
(7) Failure in any academic course means dropping out of the program.





W.H.S. Co-operative Office Experience

Selected on a basis of skills, attitude, attendance, and teacher's comments, 30 seniors were selected for the Co-operative Office Experience Program, headed by Mrs. Helen Kelleher.

The students attended school in the morning and worked in offices in the afternoon.

Students must know how to type, and must be dependable, for many of them are secretaries.

Mrs. Kelleher helps the students to find jobs and the students receive H.S. credit for the 20 hours a week they put in, and are evaluated by the employer.

FUTURE NURSES

For those who participated, the Future Nurses Club provided an interesting and varied program. The scheduled monthly meetings covered topics ranging from financial aid for nursing students, nursing of the mentally retarded, collegiate nursing programs, and the responsibilities of an office nurse, to the introduction of taking blood pressure and temperature. The club also served as a vehicle for service to the schools by providing students to assist at the Walpole High School Bloodmobile, kindergarten registration, and the lead poisoning screening program. Field trips were taken to Pondville Hospital and to the Wrentham State School. The aim of the Future Nurses Club is to provide a stepping stone for those with career interests in the nursing field.

DRIVER'S ED

Driver's Education

Once again Driver's Education proved to be rewarding and interesting for most of the students since it is a course they will use for the rest of their lives. The students not only benifitted by obtaining their licenses earlier, but also will receive a substantial discount on their insurance premiums.

The students learned the rules of the road, how to interpret and read maps. the new no fault insurance plan and basic maintance of the automobile.

Despite some setbacks, instructor, Mr. Ed Rock, is striving to have a complete program in Driver's Education by obtaining an automobile from a local dealership.

PATS' BASKETBALL

The International Relations class and the Activities Dept. hosted a basketball game against the New England Patriots in the Walpole High School gym on April 6th, game time 7:30 p.m.

Performing for a sold–out crowd, the patriots won 86–64. Many students added the defeat by 22 points could have been worse since they defeated Norwood by 80 points earlier in the year.

Playing for W.H.S. were Mr. John Conaty, Steve Branfman , Mr. Thomas Browne, Mr. Tim Collins, Mr. Thomas Reis and Mr. Peter Turco. The high scorers were Don Crummet with 16, Steve Ruppenthal with 12, and Brian Boyd with 10 points.

The Patriots were led by the 6'7'' Center Don Hasselback with 32 points followed by Steve Nelson, Steve King, Tim Fox, Ray Hamilton and Ray Costick. The game was proven to be financially successful.

Because the club was unable to find an advisor this year, the club's activities dwindled, and with that so did the attendance.

The group did manage to top off the '78 season when 10 members climbed Mt. Greylock in North Adams with Mr. William Casbarra as advisor.

RADIO

Yet another school year is over and done, students kick off their shoes, slap on the shorts, and relax for the long sultry summer.

There are those who feel they want to forget the school year, but there are those who cherish the memories of the participation in two great activities at Walpole High, the Radio Station and the Photography club.

Reaching out to learn and communicate, students of the Photography Club grasped the concept of capturing a minute portion of life's magnificent and fluent motion, a piece of a photographer's fancy, and trapping the moment on film.

The radio station members communicated directly with the citizens of Walpole, bringing a bit of the High School atmosphere to a great many people who were smart to tune to WSRB, station 91.6.

NEWSPAPER & YEARBOOK

Once again, this has been a growing year for journalism output at WHS. Not only have present publications grown professionally in content and layout, but new members have been added to equipment as well as a new publication.

To cover the activities of our growing family we have given it a new name: "W H S Publications" That family name includes the Rebel, the Rebellion, and the newest member of thefamily, the as yet unnamed magazine, a quarterly suppliment to the school paper..

The new growth means that instead of the six issues of the Rebellion to hit the stands this year, there will be eight sent out to subscribers in the town as well as being sold at East, West, and the Senior High.

There was growth financially as well as Mrs. Carolyn Manson joined the staff as co-advisor of publications. Her business expertise lifted the in-the-red deficit to where a healthy balance exists.

CHEERING

In April of '77 the cheerleading squad of '77–'78 was chosen by Mrs. Crown, Walpole High's cheering coach, and two other coaches from other towns.

Twelve varsity and eight j.v. girls spent their entire summer practicing and holding fund raising events in order to start off the season on the right foot.

Unfortunately, for a variety of individual reasons, the varsity squad lost five girls and the j.v.'s, one.

Even though the squad went through a dramatic change, they came through with flying colors placing second in the Annual Bay State League Competition for the second year in a row.

FOOTBALL

The Rebels, defying rumors of a poor year due to the exodus of starting seniors, came back to earn a very respectable Bay State League record of 8 wins and 2 losses.

Led by Tri-captains Finn, Rockwood and Hall, the team showed determination and perseverence, knowing that last years Super Bowl team would not win games for them.

The defense, unscored upon in six out of the ten encounters, relinquished only 33 points the whole year and an average of 3 points per game.

The team finished in 4th place in the Bay State League, with an impressive 9–3–2 record.

Co–captains, Berna Crehan and Carolyn Hart, led the team through a tough season with 6 wins and 1 tie in the first 7 games.

The rest of the season the girls struggled through with nagging injuries knowing that their loss to Milton, and their double loss to Wellesley, meant they were no longer contenders for the championship.

The last game of the season against Milton (for the second time) would determine whether or not the Porkers would get the 20 points needed to qualify for the State Tournament.

The team defeated Milton 3–1 and in keeping with prrvious seasons went on to the States where they beat Dover–Sherborn on penalty corners, 1–1. The Porkers went down in their next game against Holbrook, 2–1 knowing Walpole out of further competion.

Beth was leading scorer for the Porkers followed by Maureen Betro and Berna Crehan, both with 5 goals each.

SOCCER

The Rebels got off to a fast start, going undefeated in the first four games and finished the season over .500. The Reb's were led by outstanding goaltender Pete O'Brien, who tied the school shut-out record with nine.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's harrier team ran to a 1–8 record against the tough Bay State League competition under Coach William Casbarra. Led by senior co–captains, Hugh McCaffrey and Eric Young, the team made up in spirit what they lacked in experience. With mostly underclassmen runners the team finished at the bottom of the League in 10th place.

Many runners turned out for a cross country meet between East and West Junior Highs, which took place at Turco Field in the fall. A larger–than–expected turnout of spectators, along with marked interest in running, was a hopeful sign for the eager coaches at WHS.

Co–Captains Gwen Weeks and Berna Crehan were chosen as All–Stars with game averages of twelve and ten points respectively. Both girls started for the All–Star team and Gwen was one of the leading scorers with 9 points.

"The "77–78" team was the most balanced team Walpole has ever had," said Coach Susan Brainard. "We had good inside shooters as well as outside."

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Paul works best with eyes closed.

Underrated in all aspects, the Walpole high school basketball team ended their season with an impressive 8-10 record.

The Rebels were led by allstar center Brian Boyd, who also appeared in the Bay State League allstar contest, scoring 13 points against the powerhouse of Framingham South. The allstars lost the game 78-74.

Some of the highlights of the season were a come-from-behind victory to nip Braintree 53-51. There were also two dramatic wins over Needham, one in overtime (59-58) and another one by a shot at the buzzer by Dennis Teatrault (44-43)

Although Coach Collins' dream never came true in beating Framingham South, the Rebels had their first improved season in 5 years.

GYMNASTICS

The girls' gymnastics team opened their season this year with 16 members. As the year progressed and the work became harder, their numbers decreased. One month after practice began, January 4, the first meet against King Phillip, the team had only nine members. When the last to drop out finally left there were 8; these eight girls, left to right: Coach Terri Balduf, Cheryl Foster, Clair Tuson, Capt. Judy Libby, Pam Fay, A.A. Marianne Swift, Lori Whitting, and Karen Pepi, achieved record-breaking school scores. Although the team did not win many meets, the scores were high and very close. Many of the team members felt that the close losses were due to the fact that the team was the smallest in a very competitive Bay State League.

Clockwise from top. Miss Balduf anticipates a vault. Lori cartwheels through the air. Judy Libby vaults with a score of 7.8. Senior Lori Whiting keeps a steady foot on the balance beam. Senior Cheryl Foster. Practice got her this far, as she attempts a high—scoring vault.

With the hope ot improving over last year's season the Rebels took to the ice, shooting for over .500.

Led by captain Dennis Bourgeois, the Rebels hit their mark with the best record the team has had in the past 5 years.

Despite their impressive record, the Rebels finished in a disappointing 5th-place spot with a 9-8-1 record, and were only 2 points out of 3rd place.

Billy McKay led the team in scoring with 16 goals and 6 assists. He, along with Dennis Bourgeois, made the All-Star team in the Bay-State League, playing against Norwood.

With 11 seniors leaving the team, coach Kevin Fleming will have his work cut out for him next year with only 7 regular skaters returning.

WINTER TRACK

Though it could hardly be called a season to shout about there were, as the old refrain goes, some outstanding individuals who made some very impressive records: Eric Young placed first in the Bay State League for his high jumping and sixth in the State Competition. The Walpole High Wrestling Team finished their season with a well deserved 5–4 record, their best in the last three years.

Despite obvious pre–season optimism by head Coach Barry Greener, the Rebels still went into their 9 league meets only expected to win 2 or 3 meets.

Although they went into each match as the apparent underdog, the Rebels personified the reputation of tough, willing athletes of Walpole High, and finished up with a respectable record.

SKI TEAM

The Ski Team this year had an exceptionally good season, finishing in 5th place over all, out of 8 teams in the Mass Bay Ski League.

The Cross-country girls placed first in the league over 8 other teams of girls High scorer for the girls was Candy Corey with 107 points. Steve Fortin was the high scorer for the boys Cross-country with 103 points.

Captains were John Zarba and Leslie Carow. Mid-way into the season John Zarba received a knee injury which hampered the boys Cross-country team.

In the Down-hill competition the boys were lead by Eric Carson and the girls by Terri Hyland. Both were high scorers on the team.

SOFTBALL

The girls' softball team had a disappointing season, with a record of four wins and twelve losses. Walpole had victories over Natick, Norwood, and Needham twice.

The team was led by Coach Calf and her three tri-captains, Berna Crehan, Deb Fraser, and Nancy McDavitt. The girls also got great help from manager Patty Clark.

The offensive standouts through the year were: Kathy Hall, Carol O'Brien, Berna Crehan, and Deb Fraser. While defensive standouts were Beth Crehan, Carolyn Fish, Berna Crehan, and Nancy McDavitt.

Junior Kathy Hall also received a "4th place nominee" by the League All-Scholastic Team.

BASEBALL

At the beginning of the season things looked very bright with two wins over Xaverian Brothers, but then hope dimmed with four straight losses.

Games won could be attributed in large part to the slugging of sophomores Ken Wood and Scott Manty, as well as juniors Jay White and Don Hall. Senior dependables were John Rockwood, Dan Hall, John Hall and Steve Rupenthal.

The team finished with a very respectable .500 with 7 with 7 wins and 13 losses.

BOYS' TENNIS

The boys' tennis team suffered through a 1-15 season this year with a significant victory over Dedham, (see scores).

The team was in trouble from the beginning of the season when they had an average of only ten people attending practices with Paul Roidoulis being the only senior. This number decreased to an average of eight players during the season.

This year's varsity squad consisted of Steve Damish at number one singles, Steve Fortin at number two, Paul Roidoulis at number three singles, Gary Colageo and Kevin Clinton, number one doubles, and Steve Parente and Joel Burton at number two doubles.

Coach Thomas Morris will be looking for more players next year for a successful team, mainly seniors.

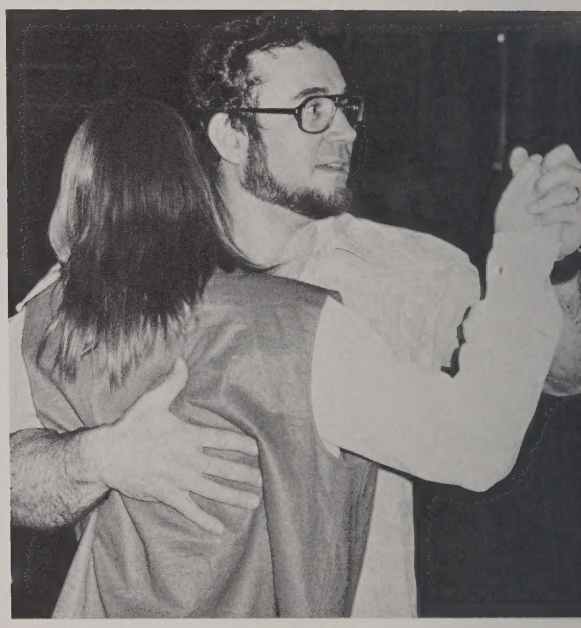
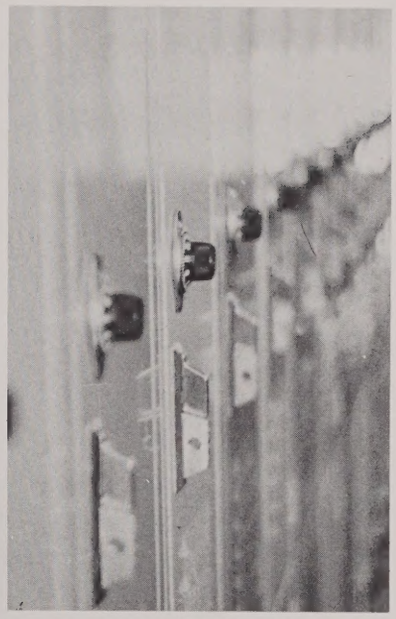
ACTIVITIES





CLASS OFFICERS

Besides urging their respective classes to pay their annual dues, the class officers strained to find ways to bring money–making activities into the school that would help them finish their senior year in the black.

This year the junior class was particularly active with the sale of carnations for Valentine's Day and class jackets. The junior class officers were also kept busy planning for the junior/senior prom.

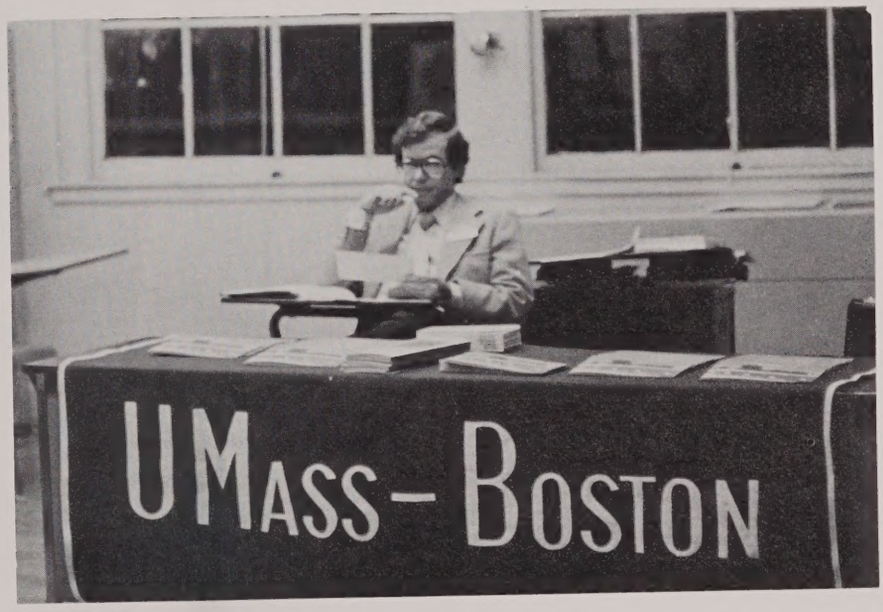
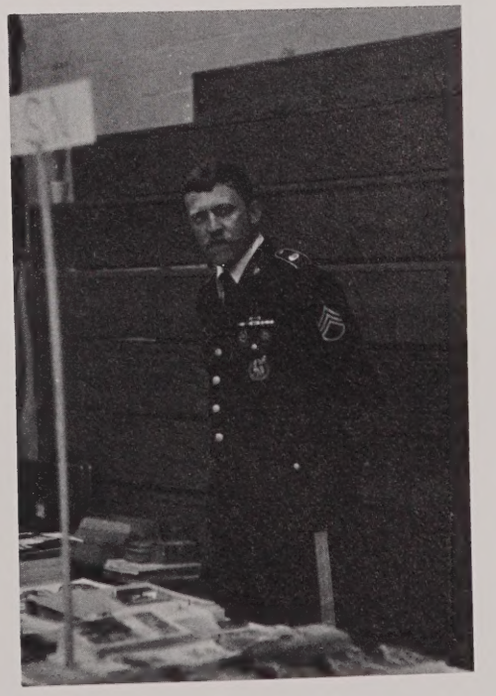
HIGHER ED NIGHT

On Thursday evening, Oct. 6, Walpole High hosted representatives from 163 colleges and universities who set up tables in the gym where they exchanged information about their schools with interested students and parents.

It was a highly successful evening for the large turnout who asked questions about courses available as well as costs. Both the colleges and the prospective students benefited from the program





The gala activities surrounding the choosing and celebrating of Walpole's Autumn Queen resembled more Cinderrella's pumpkin before and after it became the dazzling stage coach befitting a storybook queen.

Ballot stuffing made necessary several recounts during the voting, but when it was all tallied the five nominees were Barbara Butters, Berna Crehan, Cindy Crown, Pam Hixson, and Laureen Ruggles.

As the magic hour neared, a drum roll anticipated the crowning of the queen. The room fell silent as the announcement was made. Laureen Ruggles was this year's Autumn Queen with Pam Hixson and Barbara Butters first and second runners-up.

POWDER PUFF

The roles were reversed as the girls took the field for a rough game of flag football. Although the girls played a tough game, the guys really stole the show as they dressed as cheerleaders complete with skirts, wigs, and make-up.

The Tigers, lead by captains Gwen Weeks and Helen Grasso, defeated the Angels captained by Laura Cisternelli and Nancy McDavitt by a score of 30-20.

Rounding out the field of participants were Mr. Reis, Mr. Graff and Mr. Snell as the officials.

Nancy shows her style.

Sing-along with Barb and Kathy.

The last good-bye.

All's well that ends well.

The Senior Class Play "Take Her, She's Mine," drew a crowd of 600 on the two successive nights of December 16 and 17 making a net profit of $1,000.

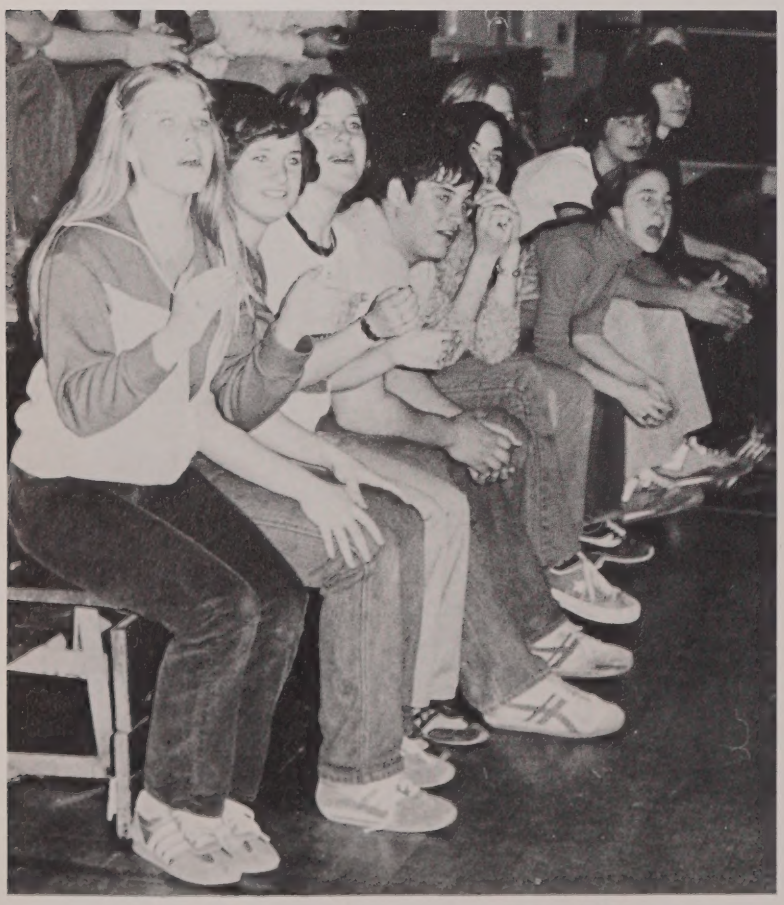
Lead parts were Nancy Mealey, as Molly, Steve DeRose, as Molly's father, Diane Burke, as Molly's mother and Nancy McDavitt, as Molly's younger sister Liz.

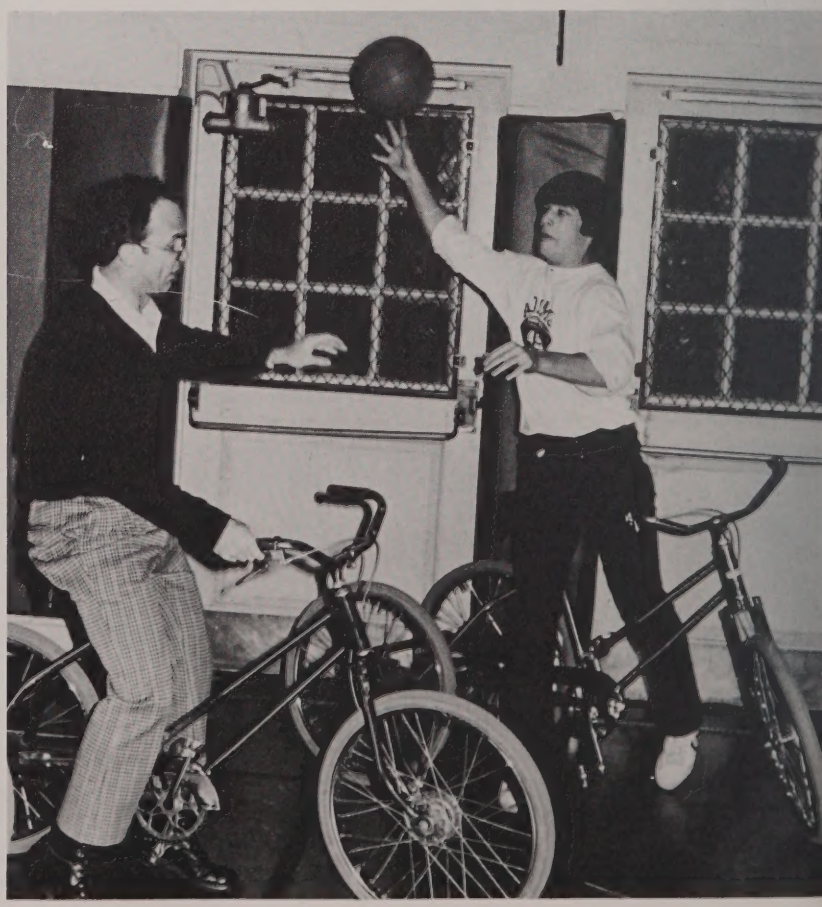
Although Molly graduated from high school with high honors she discovered while in college she couldn't keep up with her studies because of her obsession with boys, that obsession finally caused her to drop out of college. The play ended in a "here we go again" note with the younger sister Liz leaving to go to college.

The leads were supported by a fine cast, who were directed by Mr. Guenter Vilbig and student director, Esther Muscari.

CONEY ISLAND

Clockwise: Frank Duquette works out an intricate play; Turc pumps for points; "Next year we've got to motorize these"; a classic model makes a pit stop; Don Crummet reaches for the prize; John Bergamo finds his quarterbacking experience stands him in good stead; some of the loyal crowd that ignored the snow storm that turned so many away.





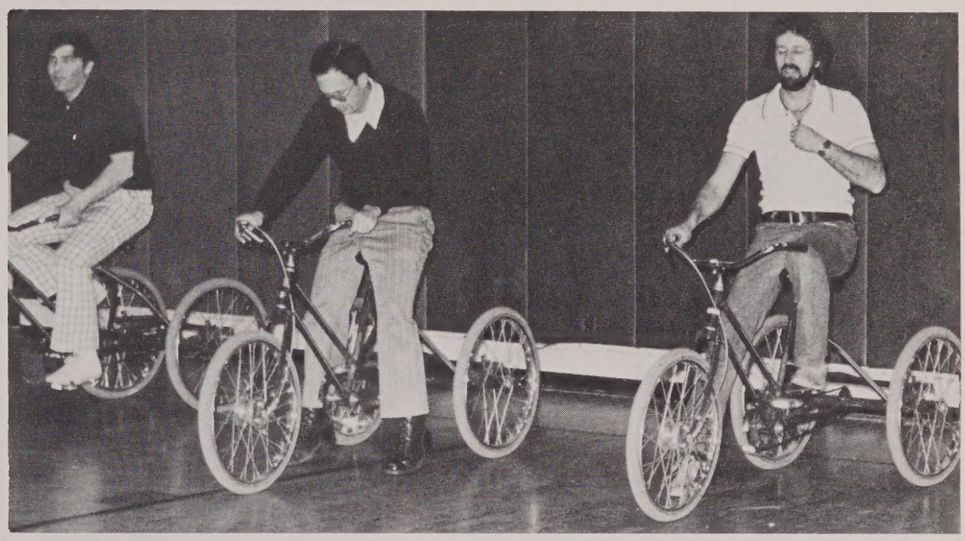
BASKETBALL

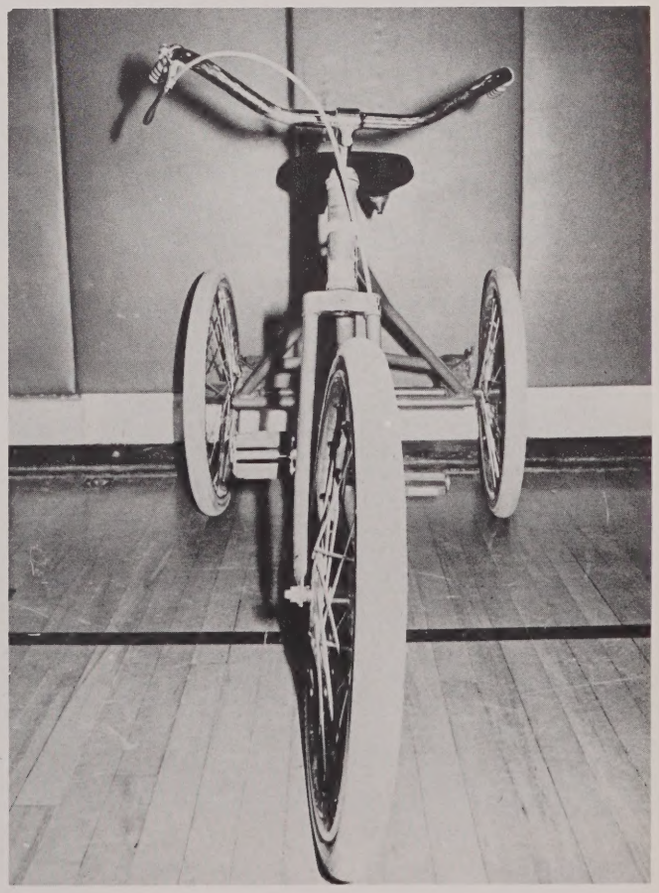
An old established tradition surrendered to the "Age of Mechanization" when donkey basketball was replaced with the The Coney Island Variety on Friday, March 3, in the old gym.

Hee–haws and horse shoes were replaced by squeaky axles and rubber tires as students challenged the faculty and staff to a sanitized version of a game that once required an ever–present "clean–up" man with broom and pan.

The game, sponsored by the junior class to shore up their sagging finances, lost at least $50.00 on the activity because of a snow storm that scared blizzard–conscious spectators away. Only 40 to 50 attended.

Despite the financial deficit everyone had a good time watching Mr. Turco make a grand slam into the wall as he pedalled to intercept a pass. Half–time comic relief came when losers of a tug–of–war were rewarded with fresh pies... in the face. By the way, the students won, 28–26.





GYMNASTRADA

It was another sell–out crowd for the Gymnastrada held in the main gym on Friday, March 31. This was the third year in a row that the show drew SRO crowds. Many had to be turned away.

The success of the performers was always somewhat amazing considering that all of the boys and some of the girls had only four weeks in which to prepare for the show.

The flower of youth.

Which way is up?

PROM

The prom was held at the Sheraton Tara in Framingham on Saturday, May 13.

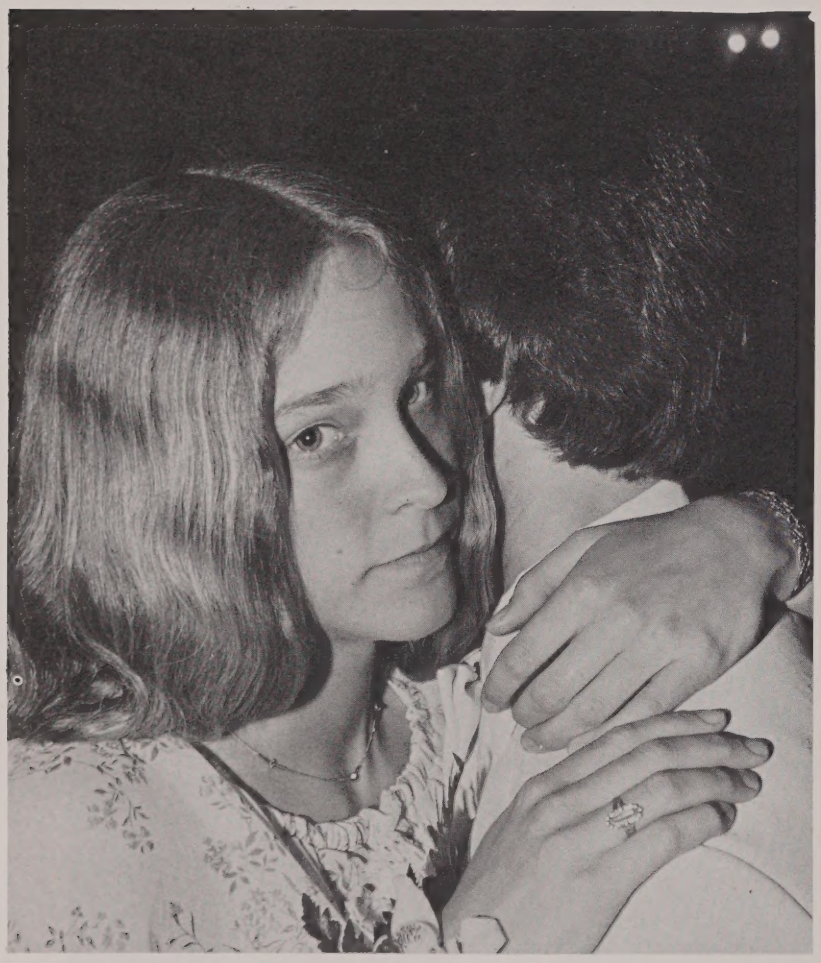
Couples arrived between 7:00 and 8:00 p.m.when dinner was served while the Malloi Band played in the background. After the meal couples were invited to dance.

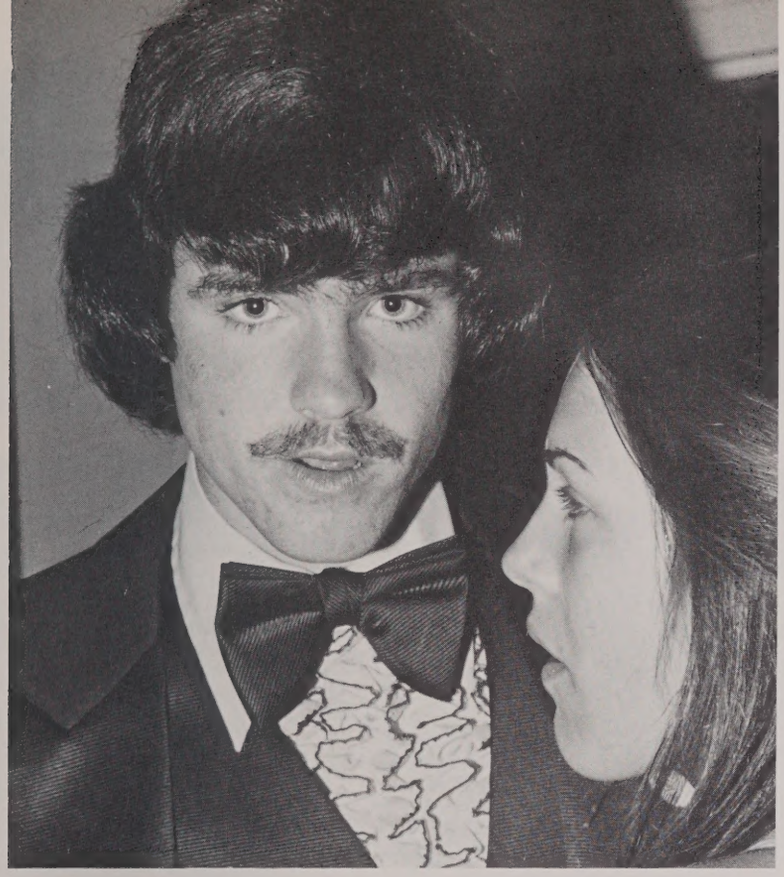
Highlight of the evening came when the five candidates for Prom Queen, along with their escorts, were invited to dance where they would be judged by the members of the band.

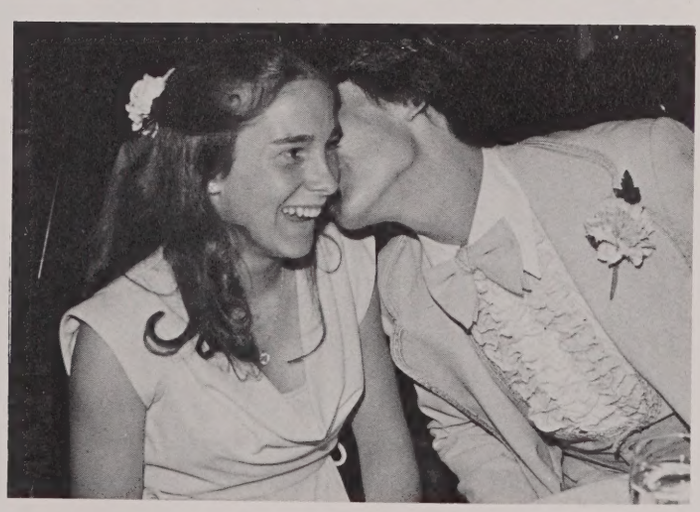
The candidates were: Becky Shontz, Pam Hixson, Sue Parente, Jackie Jones and Kathy Daly. The winner was Kathy Daly who was crowned queen and presented with a dozen red roses. Members of the queen's court each received a half dozen roses.

The evening ended with dancing to the theme song, "We May Never Pass This Way Again."

(A conflict between the unofficial "Skip Day" and the Prom meant that the Prom would be scheduled during the April vacation next year).







POPS NITE

Once again the Walpole High's Music Department outdid themselves as they performed their seventh annual "Pops Nite" on May 20th in the gymnasium.

Mr. William Foley, president of the "Friends of Music," m.c.'d the event.

The program began with the band's rendition of "Overture in Pops Style." Going contemporary they then performed "The Centaurs," ending with a finale of "The 1812 Overture."

During the band's performance, Mr. Mills awarded Colleen Foley a certificate for the National Band Association's "All American Hall of Fame Band Honors", for "outstanding music dedication and service."

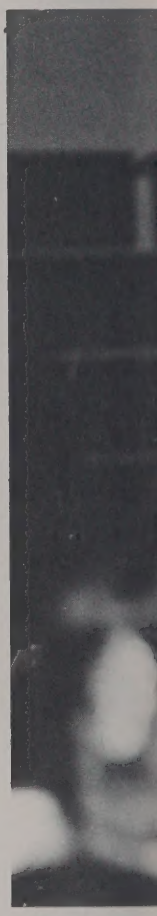
While the chorus was getting ready, Colleen, band president, presented Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Dalton with a flowering plant , in appreciation for chaperoning the band concert tour to Vermont last April.

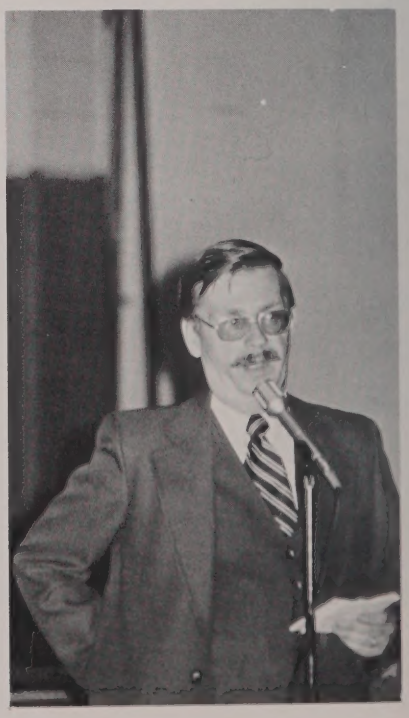
The chorus then came into the spotlight performing such pieces as "Saturday's Child," "Scarbourough Fair," and "The Morning After."

The dancing began, as the stage band started to play. They were able to please both generations with the sounds of Benny Goodman's "In the Mood," to the rock of today, "Goldfrost."

During the dance hour, awards and presentations were made. Cindy McCarhty was honored with a "distinguished service" award by Mr. Mills for her outstanding organization during S.E.M.S.B.A. and Pops Nite. Colleen Foley then introduced Mrs. Mills. Her daughter, Sue, presented her with a dozen carnations. And, finally, Mr. Mills was awarded with his very own conductor's chair, inscribed with "The Bearded Wonder."

The last song of the evening was "I Won't Last a Day Without You," dedicated to the seniors. Some instruments were played by alumni, for the seniors who wanted to dance.





CLASS TRIP

A handful of sleepy seniors gathered on the Blackburn Memorial steps to await the buses that would transport them to Frank Davis' resort in Moodus, Conn. It was 7:30 a.m. Thursday, June 1, a perfect day for the annual class trip.

By 8:30 the cavalcade of buses carrying 260 headed south on 95 for a 2½ hour trip.

At Moodus each graduate–to–be did his own thing around the epi–center of pleasure: pool, swings, lounge chairs, etc.––far from the insistent bells that jarred one from periods 1 – 8.

The Rebels swept victories in competitive swimming but they lost the canoe race when Tim Finn's paddle broke.

After a full day the class returned to Blackburn at 10:15 p.m.to dream of mortar boards and gowns.

INTERGENERATIONAL

Near the end of the school year a group of students and faculty joined the residents of Charwell House in Norwood for a cookout that was forced inside because of threatening skies.

It was the first time for some students to mingle with senior citizens and their reactions were mixed. For the majority of those students who attended it was a familiar experience for they had participarted in regular Monday evening rituals when students and residents, under the direction of Mrs. Judy Springer,had shared, written and exchanged poems which they had written.

This "intergenerational program" was so successful that it will continue during the summer with art and ceramics as well as with poetry.

Reaching Out.

It means a lot when someone cares.

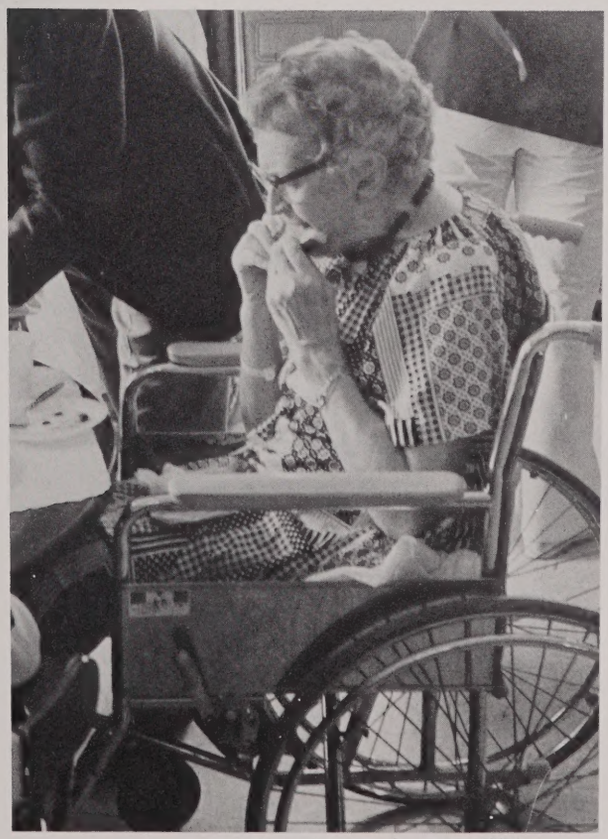
Bridging the generation gap.

Mrs. Judy Springer, who organized and directed poetry seminars with her students at Charwell House.

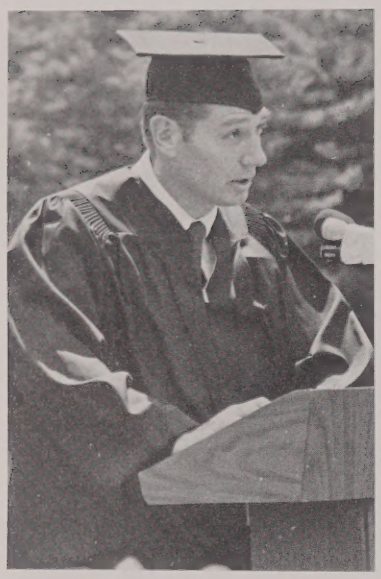
Group that attended the cookout at Charwell.

Sharing some of the exuberance of youth.

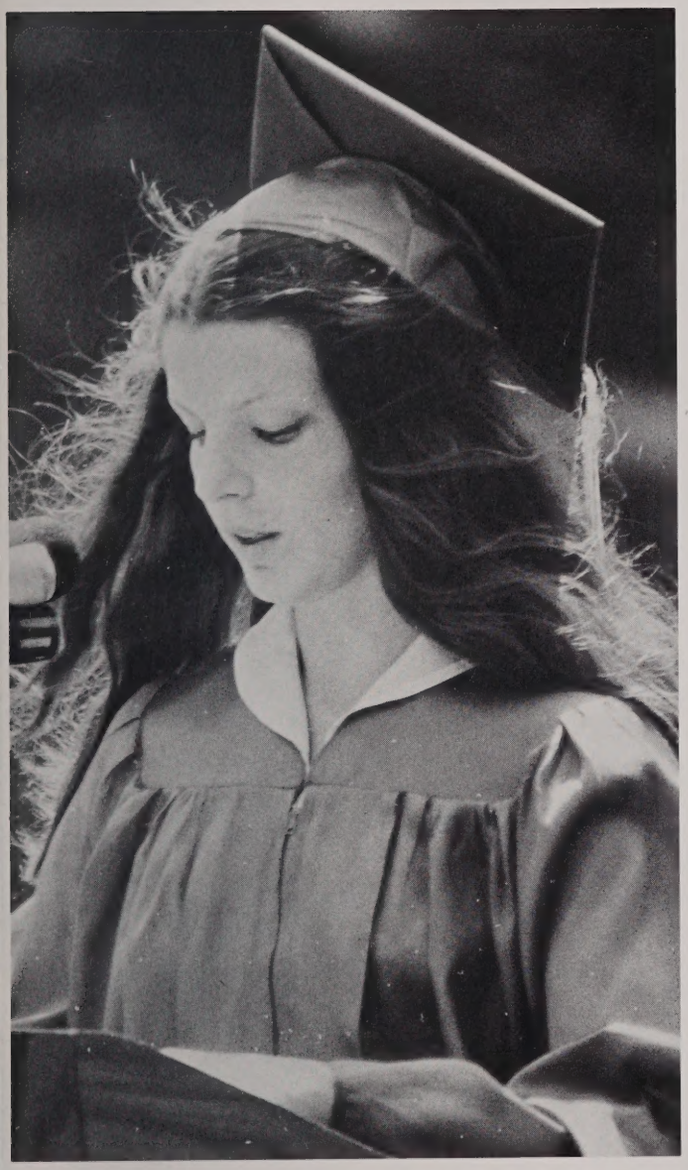
Making new friends.



Food tastes a lot better when you have company.



GRADUATION



The rehearsals had been grueling, three-hundred and fifty restless souls reeling in boredom. All the sitting and waiting posed an inevitable question: Had the classes really been all that bad? This seemed worse. Finals had ended the day before, but if we were free now, we didn't feel like it.

In long, disjointed lines we would march out of the high school gym, no ready-made enthusiasm in sight and none being drummed up in the crowds. After a while camp songs seemed to be the only solution, but they would have been out of place.

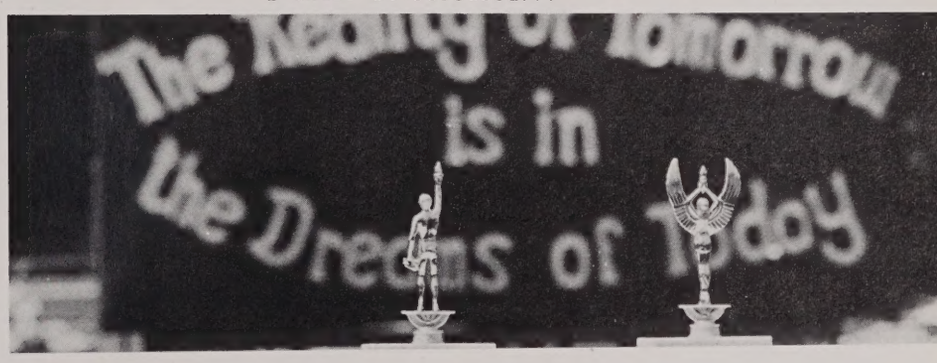
The true essence of the upcoming day was revealed when a warped recording of 'Pomp and Circumstance' reverberated off the gymnasium walls, on our way back into the school for one more last-minute preparation. But as the soon-graduates filed hopelessly back to their seats, "When the Saints Go Marching In," would have seemed much more fitting. At leat it had a beat.

All of this perpetual motion finally culminated into something fascinatingly well-coordinated on Graduation Day. There wasn't a cloud in the sky as the Class of '78 marched into Turco Field by way of a back entrance.

And to the traditional tapping of "Pomp and Circumstance" I can only say that I would have liked one of Bob Dylan's verses much better:

They say everything can be replaced
Yet every distance is not near
So I remember every face
Of every man who put me here

I see my light come shining
From the west unto the east
Any day now, any day now
I shall be released...



The Reality of Tomorrow
is in

MEN—WOMEN

Maybe you'd rather wait a few years. To travel, to learn a skill, to find out what you can do, to mature.

For you, today's Army can be a meaningful step in educational development.

We offer challenge. Physical and mental. We offer hundreds of job-training courses to try out for. We offer a choice of location. Stateside or abroad. And we offer one of the best benefit packages anywhere.

And if you decide to start college while you're in, we'll pay up to 75% of your tuition and fees for approved courses.
